Background 背景

 The first International Advanced Training Course (IATC) for traditional Chinese medicine (TCM) is an international training program sponsored by the Chinese government's Ministry of Science and Technology (MOST).

中医药国际高级培训班是由中华人民共和国科技部发起并资助的系列国际培训项目。

• The TCM-IATC is organized by China Academy of Chinese Medical Sciences (CACMS), with assistance from Center for East-West Medicine (CEWM) of University of California, Los Angeles (UCLA). CACMS is one of the most prominent TCM institutions in the world and UCLA CEWM is one of the first major world class health centers involved in the globalization of Chinese medicine outside of China. The aim of both institutions is to integrate the best of Chinese and western medicine to improve healthcare throughout the world.

项目承办方为中国中医科学院中医临床基础医学研究所,协办方为美国加州大学洛杉矶分校(UCLA)东西医学中心。其中,中国中医科学院为世界顶尖的中医药临床与研究机构,UCLA东西医学中心是世界级医学院中最早开始实施和传播中医药的机构。两者都一直致力于整合东西方医学优势以更好的维护健康。

• The primary aim of TCM-IATC is to share the most recent development of TCM in science and technology and in both clinical and research arenas.

中医药国际高级培训班的主要目的是与世界分享中医药在科学与技术、临床与研究及基础与转化方面的最新进展。

Goals 目的
